Friends of Sulgrave Manor

Volume 11, No. 1

Greetings Ladies,

All is in place for a wonderful annual meeting of the Friends of Sulgrave Manor this October in Basking Ridge, New Jersey. Billie Stallings and Betsy Holdsworth have done a fabulous job, even arranging for George Washington to join us for our opening dinner!

This has been a banner year for the Friends of Sulgrave Manor, due to the hard work of you, our members. You have raised a great deal more money than expected and you have placed our new DVD everywhere from local schools, libraries and nursing homes to Gunston Hall and Mount Vernon

On July 3 "The Washingtons of Sulgrave Manor" HIT THE AIRWAVES!

It was shown on WTTW, a Chicago PBS station which broadcasts to three states. Sue Knepper, Associate Trustee from Illinois, and the Illinois Dames had a glorious tea and preview of the film and graciously invited all of the members of the Friends of Sulgrave Manor. Inspired by Sue's success, many Associate Trustees got busy and we are now planning for telecasts in Washington, DC, New Orleans, Philadelphia (Presidents Day), Dallas, West Virginia, Iowa and Alabama. This list is growing. We are ON FIRE and plan to show our DVD in every state, so get busy! Let us know when you make a contact and we can take you from there, thanks to the wonderful work of Peter Broadbent, our lawyer from Richmond and Ken Winber, director and producer of "The Washingtons of Sulgrave Manor".

The London Circle (which includes Dames from everywhere) made a trip to Sulgrave Manor this past May for a tour and picnic. Bess Fuchs has been making arrangements and communicating with all those involved, but we are happy to announce that Ruth Maudlin, London resident, and fellow Alabamian has agreed to become the leader of the London Circle. On November 12 the group, plus Bess and me, will bus up to Sulgrave Manor for a tour and lunch, then travel on to Leicestershire to have tea with John and Lucy Strange, a California Dame.

We are thrilled that the Baroness Jill Knight of Collingtree, Chairman of the Board of Sulgrave Manor, will be visiting us in the US in September and early October. Her itinerary takes her from California to Alabama, Louisiana, Washington, DC and Maryland before she joins us in New Jersey at our Annual Meeting. Try to

As you know, finances have been an ongoing challenge at Sulgrave Manor. With the economic situation as it is, things are even more difficult than ever. Because of your hard work raising and giving money, the Friends of Sulgrave Manor has been able to donate $60,000 this year, with hopes of giving more before year's end.

Ladies, the mission of the Friends of Sulgrave Manor is to help support Sulgrave Manor and to educate people about its importance as both the ancestral home of George Washington and as a

London Thursday November 10th, 2011

Join us in London Thursday evening November 10th for the Sulgrave Manor fundraising Watson lecture. We have a fantastic speaker lined up, Larry Summers. He has in the last 12 years been Clinton's Treasury Secretary, President of Harvard, infamous for his purported comment about women scientists, and pictured meeting with the Winckelvoss brothers in the facebook movie The Social Network. Then he was Obama's first chairman of the National Economic Council i.e. chief economic adviser to the President with his office in West Wing. The whole evening including dinner at the Central Hall, Westminster will be £120 per person.

(Approximately $200)

Did you Know?

Sulgrave is very fortunate to have in its collection a 1607 edition of the “Breeches Bible”. The term refers to Adam and Eve in its’ version of Genesis 3:7: “and they sewed the leaves together and made themselves breeches”. That is a book collectors’ term for the Geneva Bible of 1560. Protestants who fled to Switzerland to escape the rule of Catholic Queen Mary translated the Bible into English. This was revolutionary. It became very popular in England, especially with the common people, and was dedicated to the Protestant Queen Elizabeth.

Practical advantages contributed to its popularity. It was much smaller in size than the large folios of Henry’s time. It divided the text for the first time into verses. It was often printed in clear Roman type instead of the old ‘black letter’ and used italics to identify the translators’ insertions and provided explanatory notes in the margins. It also had rather excellent woodcut illustrations and maps. (Note: that is Henry VIII is shown at the top center.

The Bible is on display at Sulgrave Manor.

Sulgrave News from the States

The Delaware Society had a Friends of Sulgrave Manor Tea to raise money to be used for educational and restoration efforts at Sulgrave Manor. They served tea with delicious homemade treats. They also sold additional items like English shortbreads, Butter Almond Crunch candy, a specialty of Robbie Snowdon, a Friends of Sulgrave Manor Trustee.

The short version of the DVD, "The Washingtons of Sulgrave Manor" was shown at the winter meeting of the Seattle Society. Fay Page their Associate Trustee has encouraged members to buy copies for their children, grandchildren, schools, history teachers and local PBS stations. The very first public showing of the DVD was in Chicago over the 4th of July. She hopes to find a way to get our local Seattle station to show it during the Presidents Day weekend next February.

WETA, the Washington, DC area public television station will show the condensed DVD. Kay Glenday has secured a contract for a broadcast soon in the Washington, DC area. Important news is that the Sulgrave Club will have a club luncheon event added to the fall schedule on Monday, October 3. The Baroness Jill Knight will be speaking, followed by a showing of the condensed version. Though this is not technically a DC Dames event, a significant number of us are members of the Sulgrave Club, and this is wonderful for public relations and towards eventual fundraising. No fund-raising is permitted at the club, so the Baroness' talk must be informational. The Sulgrave Club was founded in 1932 the same year which was the two-hundredth anniversary of George Washington's birth, so the name of his ancestral home was chosen for the club, and they received permission to incorporate the Washington coat of arms into the Sulgrave Club crest.

The Texas Society was informed of the upcoming (2014) 100th anniversary of Sulgrave Manor being given to the Peoples of the United States and England as a memorial of their common inheritance – and the 100 years of peace between them. Last year was the best year ever for the donations from the Texas Dames to the Friends of Sulgrave Manor.

We would like to thank all of the outgoing Associate Trustees of Sulgrave Manor. Their combined work and effort have greatly contributed to the increase in contributions from the respective states and to the awareness of Sulgrave Manor.. We welcome and look forward to working with our New Associate Trustees.
