

Friends of Sulgrave Manor

Fall 2014
Volume 14, No. 1

Dear Dames,

What a wonderful year we the Friends of Sulgrave Manor have had. Part of Sulgrave Manor's mission is to promote Anglo-American relations. Oh my, we certainly accomplished that with our five day celebratory Centenary Tour in the Sulgrave Manor neighborhood. We had several events at the Manor to which our British neighbors were invited. I loved looking around and seeing our two groups mixing, and new cross ocean friendships beginning. Because of the Dames generous donations to the Friends of Sulgrave Manor, I was thrilled to be able to present a check for $100,000 to the Manor. Just before the day's end, flag lowering ceremony, Alice Lea Tasman planted a "Compassion Rose" in memory of Tenny Marshall, a former Sr. Representative to the Sulgrave Manor Board.

A generous Dame has offered a $25,000 matching grant to repair the leaking windows at the Manor. We are well on our way to completing the match. Can you be part of this? We applied for a $10,000 matching grant from the DAR to restore the artwork at the Manor. Did you know that the Manor has three portraits of George Washington? Two of them are original. The third is a copy of Charles Wilson Peale's portrait. The copy was commissioned by the Dames and presented to the Manor, once the Dames could again travel to England after WW I. If you have never been to Sulgrave Manor, why don't you plan a trip and see the restored portraits. Last fall Sulgrave Manor was placed on the World Monument Fund's Watch List, an international collection of endangered historical sites. We are in good company with other sites such as Angkor Wat, Venice and Easter Island.

If any of you are going to be in London, October 17th would you like to go to the House of Lords? The London Circle is having a benefit there as part of the ongoing effort to raise money for the repair of the Manors windows. It is a magnificent gothic building and a rare opportunity to be able to wander its halls.

CENTENARY TRIP

When we checked into the Hotel Cadogan in London on June 2, the lobby was very quiet with only two employees in the front and no other hotel guests. By June 4, the world had changed! Over 100 members of the Sulgrave Manor Centenary Tour had stormed the hotel and taken it over. Thursday morning June 5 these same travelers brought themselves, luggage, umbrellas and boarded the three waiting coaches so the great adventure could begin.

Our first stop was Bletchley Park, the site of the United Kingdom's main decryption establishment, the Government Code and Cypher School during World War II. Cyphers and codes of Axis countries were decrypted here including the so-called unbreakable cyphers generated by the German Enigma and Lorenz machines. It also housed a secret radio intercept station and a message sending station. The high-level intelligence produced at Bletchley Park, codenamed Ultra, provided crucial assistance to the Allied War effort. After lunch at the Museum we boarded our coaches and went off to Cottesbrooke Hall. The absolutely beautiful house was built between 1702 and 1712 and displays one of the finest sporting picture collections in Europe, as well as a large collection of bronzes, fine English and French furniture, and a spectacular porcelain collection - which left a lot of us extremely envious. The 18th century landscaping of the park, its vistas and lake are delightful, and we were lucky to have a lovely sunny afternoon. Our final journey of the day was to our home away from home for the next four nights, Whittlebury Hall Hotel. The check-in was prearranged so it was painless, and after a planned dinner for all, we went to bed early to be ready for the next adventure.

Friday morning we boarded our coaches and took off for Broughton Grange and Broughton Castle. The castle was started in 1306, but most of what is seen today dates from the 1550's. It was a center of opposition to Charles 1 and much damaged after the Battle of Edgehill in 1642, and it has been in the same family since 1447. According to the owner it did not qualify to be called a castle until an early owner built a moat and added ramparts. The gardens of Broughton Grange are set in 350 acres of parkland, farmland and meadows and they are wonderful. It is among the most important private contemporary gardens in Britain. After lunching at either Broughton Castle or alternatively the Saye & Sele Arms, we proceeded to Stratford for dinner at the Dinner Rooftop Restaurant at the Royal Shakespeare Company in Stratford on Avon. The evening's play was a superb presentation of Henry IV, Act 1, which included much sword fighting.

On Saturday morning we were greeted by more than the usual drizzle, requiring umbrellas and mud-worthy shoes as this was the day for the tour of Lord Heseltine's Garden and Arboretum at Thenford. Even in the rain, it was a magnificent occasion. There are more than 3500 trees and shrubs that have been planted over the 64 acres by Lord and Lady Heseltine, and it all includes an 18th century walled garden lakes, ponds and a sculpture garden. Lord Heseltine welcomed us and was on hand to answer questions as we strolled the gardens and walked the paths. We then departed for Sulgrave Manor and a picnic in the marquee (tents to us in the USA) with residents of the area, watched a Tudor play, and enjoyed tours of the Manor and visits to the gardens in town - as well as a local's truly superb antique car collection. After lunch we were visited by the Grafton Hounds, accompanied by the Senior Master and the Huntsman. The hounds' main objective seemed to be to break into the marquee and find something to eat. Then back to Whittlebury Hall to change into proper attire for the lovely dinner parties awaiting us. Seventeen families who are friends of the Sulgrave Manor Trustees in England divided us up, invited their friends to meet us and put on truly spectacular dinner parties. We were all overwhelmed with the warmth of our welcome into our various hosts' homes.

Dames Day at Sulgrave Manor began at 9:30 Sunday morning when we boarded our coaches and headed for the Church of St. James the Less in the village of Sulgrave. The church was built between 1327 and 1377 during the reign of Edward III and was the one attended by Lawrence Washington and his family. After church we gathered at the marquee for a reception and luncheon to celebrate the day with honored guests. We then walked to the Manor for a Rose Planting Ceremony in memory of Tenny Marshall followed by the Flag Lowering Ceremony conducted by U. S. Air Force personnel. In the evening we returned to the Manor for a Hog Roast and performance by the Coal Wharf Studio of Noel Coward's songs and anecdotes.

Monday was departure day from Sulgrave and environs - but it wasn't over yet! Our first stop was the Aston Martin factory and the Heritage Motor Museum - or Claydon House in Buckinghamshire. The museum was particularly enjoyable for us as my first car, a mouse colored 1960 Morris Minor was there (although mine was a hard top and not a convertible) as was my husband Marvin's red 1966 MGB. Late in the afternoon we were back at the Cadogan Hotel in London for an elegant dinner and farewell at the Cavalry and Guards Club. The building, known as '127' was erected in about 1875 and at the inaugural meeting of the Cavalry Club Committee the then owner of the dwelling offered the premises to the Club. The leases of both '125' and '126' were acquired and between 1907 and 1909 extensive refurbishments created the current Club House. In 1975 the Guards Club gave up its own headquarters and merged with the Cavalry, and in 1984 the combined organizations purchased all of the leases and set about renovating and redecorating the property making it the impressive neo-classical place it is today.

None of this would have been possible if Hurricane Sandy had not occurred stranding Bess Fuchs in Sulgrave. Bess and Gabriella Magnay, wife of Trustee Christopher Magnay, put their heads together and came up with the scheme for the trip. Laura Clark handled the hotels and reservations, and the three of them spent the better part of two years refining it. Gabriella and Sulgrave Trustee Nancy Stewart were our guides for all of the excursions, and their families' participation helped make it work. It was truly the trip of a lifetime, and I know that all of us who came will never forget it.

Sulgrave Day 2014
by Dorothy Knox Houghton

Sir Philip Sidney's sixteenth century bucolic work, "Arcadia," came to mind as Sulgrave Day 2014 unfolded. "Arcadia was, (alas well might I say it is) the charmed circle, where all his spirits should ever be enchanted." Such was the balmy, intoxicating atmosphere of the rolling, sun-filled English countryside punctuated with varying shades of green, geometric patterns formed by hedges and dotted with white sheep, wild daisies, flowering bushes and trees. Nowhere could one have found a more idyllic setting.

One hundred and twenty Dames and their friends gathered with our neighbors who live around Sulgrave Manor for a beautiful service at the local village church, St James the Less. This is the church where the Washington family worshipped, and it has stained glass windows decorated with the Washington coat of arms. This coat of arms includes stars and stripes said to have inspired the design of our American flag. The sermon was delivered by the Right Reverend Donald Allister, The Lord Bishop of Petersborough, whose predecessor preached at a similar service on the occasion of the purchase of Sulgrave Manor one hundred years ago.

After the service, everyone made their way down the lane to the manor house where the festivities began with aperitifs on the lawn followed by a delectable luncheon in a beautiful white tent. The white tablecloths and the chandeliers were decorated with country flowers in shades of pink, lavender, purple and green. We were welcomed by Mr. Norman Hudson OBE, Acting Chairman of the Sulgrave Manor Trust. Bishop Allister said Grace. After the first course, His Excellency Mr. Matthew Barzun, United States Ambassador to the Court of St. James, gave a most interesting address. Following the second course, The Right Honourable The Earl Spencer D L spoke about his family's historical connections with and relationship to the Washington family. After the third course, Mrs. D. Thomas Moody, President of the NSCDA, spoke about the role of the Colonial Dames in supporting the manor. Then, Mrs. David Fuchs, Senior Representative of the Friends of Sulgrave Manor to the Sulgrave Manor Trust, presented to Mr. Hudson a check for $100,000 representing $1,000 for each of the Dames' one hundred years of involvement with the manor.

Following tours of the house and gardens, the Friends of Sulgrave Manor remembered Mrs. Tenny Marshall, Friends of Sulgrave Manor Senior Representative to the Sulgrave Manor Board from 1997 to 2003, by planting a rose bush in the garden. At 4:00 P. M. the flag lowering ceremony featuring the Honour Guard, 501 Com Support Wing, USAF officially closed the day.

However, Dames love to party, and a short time later the crowd was back for a hog roast in the tent. Again, cocktails were served on the lawn as we watched the sun disappear over the tranquil, rolling countryside. Following another delicious dinner, we were treated to "Noel Coward, the Man and his Music," an award-winning cabaret show of songs and anecdotes performed by Louie Utterson and his musicians. Thus, Sulgrave Day 2014 actually came to a close. We parted reluctantly, looking forward to visits yet to come.

The most significant outcome of Sulgrave 2014 must be the camaraderie forged between the Dames and our neighbors who live close around Sulgrave Manor. Our neighbors are delightful, fascinating, generous people who entertained us in their homes and gardens and who expressed great interest in the manor. Chief

TX	Margaret C B Brown	IHO Bess Fuchs & Laura Rutherford	SULGRAVE MANOR UPCOMING EVENTS
TX	Margaret Brown	IMO Valerie Winant Goodhart	Sulgrave Manor will host the Sulgrave Village Car Show on Sunday September 7 organized by Sulgrave Village residents to raise funds for the village church, St. James the Less. All monies paid for the entrance to the show, garden tickets and a portion of house tour entrance will be donated by Sulgrave Manor to the Church fabric fund. This fund insures that the money raised will be used for repairs of the village church and not disappear into the diocese.
TX	Linda L Cummings	IMO Lawrence Washington Her Ancestor	This year's Harvest Fayre on Sunday September 21 is set to be another fun filled, family day with local food, drink and craft stalls, scarecrow fancy dress competition, apple pressing, Morris Men, vintage tractors on display cooking and cheese making demo. Participants can learn about chicken husbandry and the secret lives of bees; hear memoirs about harvest and how it has changed over the years and meet the Blacksmith in the Tudor forge. There will be a pig roast, BBQ and homemade refreshments available all day.
TX	Mrs. Tieman H Dippel, Jr	IMO Thomas Wilson Wright and Peggy Wedgeworth Wright	Friday October 17 the London Circle and the Baroness Jill Knight of Collingtree invite all to an elegant evening at the House of Lords to raise funds for the Manor. Further details may be found at www.sulgravemanor.org.uk .
TX	Janet W Francis	IHO Anne Boyce Folkes	Saturday November 29 and Sunday November 30 Santa has been secured for an entire weekend. There will be crafts, food and gift stalls throughout the site and Carol singing around the Christmas tree. Hot mulled wine, homemade soup and roast turkey rolls will be served in the Courtyard.
TX	Janet W Francis	IHO Margaret Brown	Acting Chairman Norman Hudson is pleased to announce that Sulgrave Manor has been allocated funding worth $90,000 towards the re-thatching of Kiln Farm and Manor Cottage.
